

KUVATEKSTI

CARL LINDSTRÖM AG, founded in 1904, was in its time one of the four largest multinational record companies. Lindström artists included the opera singer Richard Tauber, film actress Zarah Leander, conductor Willem Mengelberg and jazz trumpettist Louis Armstrong, as well as Balinese gamelan orchestras and classical Indian singers.

THE LINDSTRÖM PROJECT is an international project started by Gesellschaft für historische Tonträger in 2008 to chart the Lindström Company's role in the development of the recording industry. The second volume focuses on regional studies of Lindström in Britain, Denmark, Portugal, Bosnia, India and Indonesia. There are also articles on Edmund Czempin, a pioneer phonograph dealer, Richard Tauber, Leo Slezak, traditional Viennese songs, recordings made by Emperor Franz Josef of Austria, and a history of the Favorite Company (1904-1914). A special article surveys the marketing of gramophone needles, which were an important sideline of record companies.

GESELLSCHAFT FÜR HISTORISCHE TONTRÄGER e. V. (Society for historical sound recordings) is an organization dedicated to the study of sound recordings. GHT organizes annual conferences on discography; the 2010 conference will be held at the University of Hildesheim, Germany.
